

History of Man from Adam to Christ

In the beginning...

Creation of the heavens and earth. Before man. Until "the earth became chaotic and wasted; and darkness was upon the face of the deep." Gen 1:2

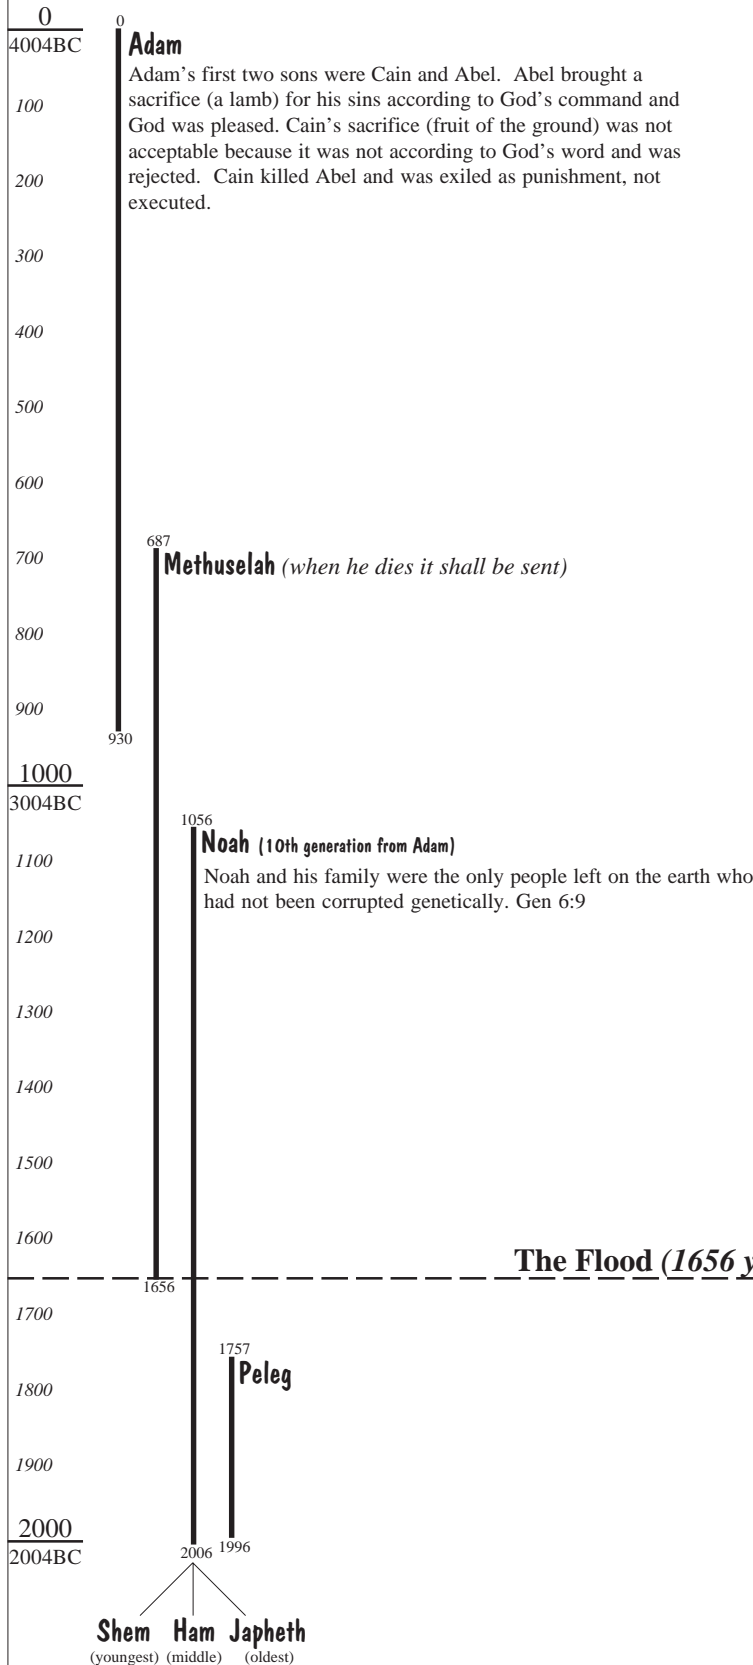

Age of Innocence

Man and woman in the Garden. Until sin caused the fall. Savior promised to mankind. Gen 3:15

Age of Conscience

God taught the message of salvation to man and recorded it in the stars. Mankind before the flood became increasingly evil. Men lived a long life. The earth became populated (probably billions of people) and fallen angels try to genetically destroy human race to prevent the Savior from coming (Gen 6). Until God intervened with the flood to save mankind.

The flood was prophesied (probably by his father Enoch who "walked with God: and he [was] not; for God took him." Gen 5:24) at the birth of Methuselah and fulfilled at his death.

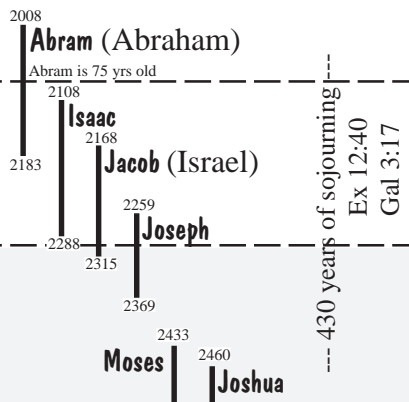

Age of Patriarchs

After the flood, God established capital punishment (the foundation of every government) and the eating of meat, and drinking blood was forbidden (this covenant between God and man exists to this day). A patriarchal system was established until the law.

In order to slow the spread of evil, God confused the language of man at the Tower of Babel (Gen 11:1-9) and God divided the land during the days of Peleg (Gen 10:25).

Abraham is called out from the world

God promises Abram that through him all nations of the earth shall be blessed. Through the seed of Abraham the Savior must now come. His descendants become the target of the fallen angels and their leader. Abraham operated by faith and was before the law. Therefore the law is not a better principle but a teacher to lead us to Christ.
